

Chaplain Loretta Ransberg

Chaplain Loretta Ransberg is a dedicated and compassionate spiritual leader committed to providing pastoral care, emotional support, and faith-based guidance to individuals across diverse life experiences. With a heart for service and a deep sensitivity to the presence of God, she carries a mandate to minister hope, healing, and spiritual strength in both crisis and everyday life.

She is a board-certified chaplain and licensed and ordained minister with over 25 years of ministry experience, holding advanced theological training in urban ministry and Christian studies from Trinity International University.

Throughout her tenure, she has served in a variety of settings, including hospitals, hospice care, community outreach initiatives, and church leadership.

She currently serves at Victory Apostolic Ministry as Director of Healing Hearts Grief and Loss Ministry, where she leads and provides specialized support for individuals navigating grief and life transitions.

Her ministry is distinguished by her ability to meet individuals where they are, offering prayer, counsel, and spiritual covering with wisdom, discretion, and compassion.

Chaplain Ransberg is widely recognized for her ability to bring comfort in times of grief, clarity in moments of uncertainty, and encouragement during personal and spiritual challenges. She operates with the highest standards of integrity and confidentiality, demonstrating a deep respect for the diverse backgrounds and beliefs of those she serves.

Her appointment as Chaplain for R.H.E.M.A. affirms her proven character, spiritual maturity, and professional competency in providing holistic spiritual care.
