

Sister Sharon Franklin

Sister Sharon Franklin was born in Chicago, Illinois and moved to Bangor, Michigan when she was 9 years old. She is the 8th child of 10 children. Sister Sharon is the wife of Steven Franklin and currently resides in Kalamazoo, Michigan. She has two adult sons; Chris and Kenny. She is the grandmother to twin boys, Tyrique and Tayshaun, and felt so blessed to have finally gotten a little granddaughter, Tahlia, in the family.

Sister Franklin is currently retired after working for the State of Michigan for 36 years. She loves traveling, fishing, singing, and renovating.

Sister Franklin has been a faithful member of Family Gospel Chapel in Bangor, MI since it was established in 1987 under the pastoral leadership of Brother John Fitzgerald. She is the church's administrative assistant and serves on the usher board. She is also an anointed psalmist.

Sister Franklin was a part of R.H.E.M.A. when it initially launched in 2013 and now serves on the leadership team as the Senior Liaison for a remarkable group of young ladies, the women of ADOR. She has always had the heart of a servant as long as she can remember, and prays that God will continue to use her to help others, and further His kingdom.

Sister Franklin loves the Word of God and is still in constant awe when she reads the Bible. Her favorite saying to herself is, "Use me Lord, I want to live for You!"
